

ALL IN!

PACER's National Bullying Prevention Center offers FREE online bullying prevention resources for K-12 educators!

FREE bullying prevention lessons are designed to create an environment in which every student is INcluded, INvolved, and INvested in addressing and preventing bullying through instruction, engagement, and peer interaction throughout the entire school year.

Register online at:
PACER.org/bullying/classroom/all-in

Lessons are available through desktop, tablet, and personal devices.

- > Designed for weekly presentation in a classroom or community setting
- > Lessons can be delivered within a 20-minute time frame or adapted to fit the time requirements
- > Each month there is a new theme, and lessons include a PowerPoint, classroom interaction, a club sponsored activity, and a video or book
- > Individual tabs in the online module contain all the materials for the month
- > Some of the resources are designated for either elementary students, or middle and high school students
